

DACORUM AND CHILTERN POTTERS GUILD

March 1984

March Meeting

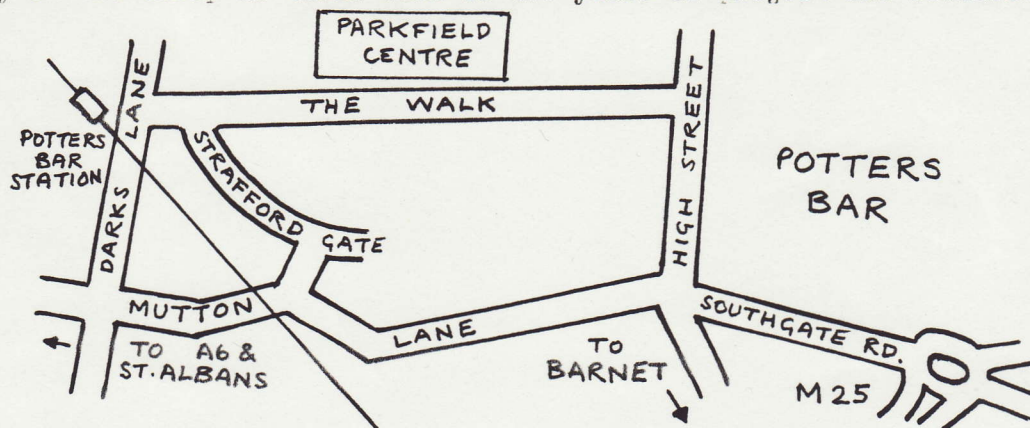

Friday, 9th March, 1984 at 8pm. Northchurch Social Centre, Bell Lane, Northchurch, Herts.

TRISH PHILLIPS

Trish trained at Harrow on the Studio Potters' Course and consequently her work is steeped in tradition. She creates a charming domestic 'nest' and this sensitivity to her environment is echoed in her work, she is creative and her changefulness makes it difficult to guess what she will demonstrate. Trish exhibits at several galleries, including the Casson Gallery and is married to Danny Killick.

Open House

Potters Bar Group will be holding an Open House on Friday, 23rd March, 1984 from 7.30pm. at the De Havilland College, Parkfield Centre, The Walk, Potters Bar, Herts. (J. Higgins St. Albans 32518) This meeting was postponed from January and should be especially worthwhile for anyone with a particular interest in pioneer pottery or pottery on the cheap as there will be two years of project and research work on view.

Pottery Archaeology - sub. club

On Wednesday, 21st March, 1984, at 8pm. Paulen and Stan Cauvain of Berkshire Archaeological Society will give a talk on local mediaeval pottery sites, illustrated with slides and pots at their home. There will also be a project discussion on constructing a mediaeval kiln to fire pots similar to those from that period. The numbers are limited to twelve, anyone interested please contact Les and Anne Sutherland on 01 907 4944 for directions and further details.

If any member has a video camera which could be used by the Guild on very special occasions please contact Roger Winn (tel Chesham 782033).
