

DACORUM AND CHILTERN POTTERS GUILD

March, April 1985

Practical Evening

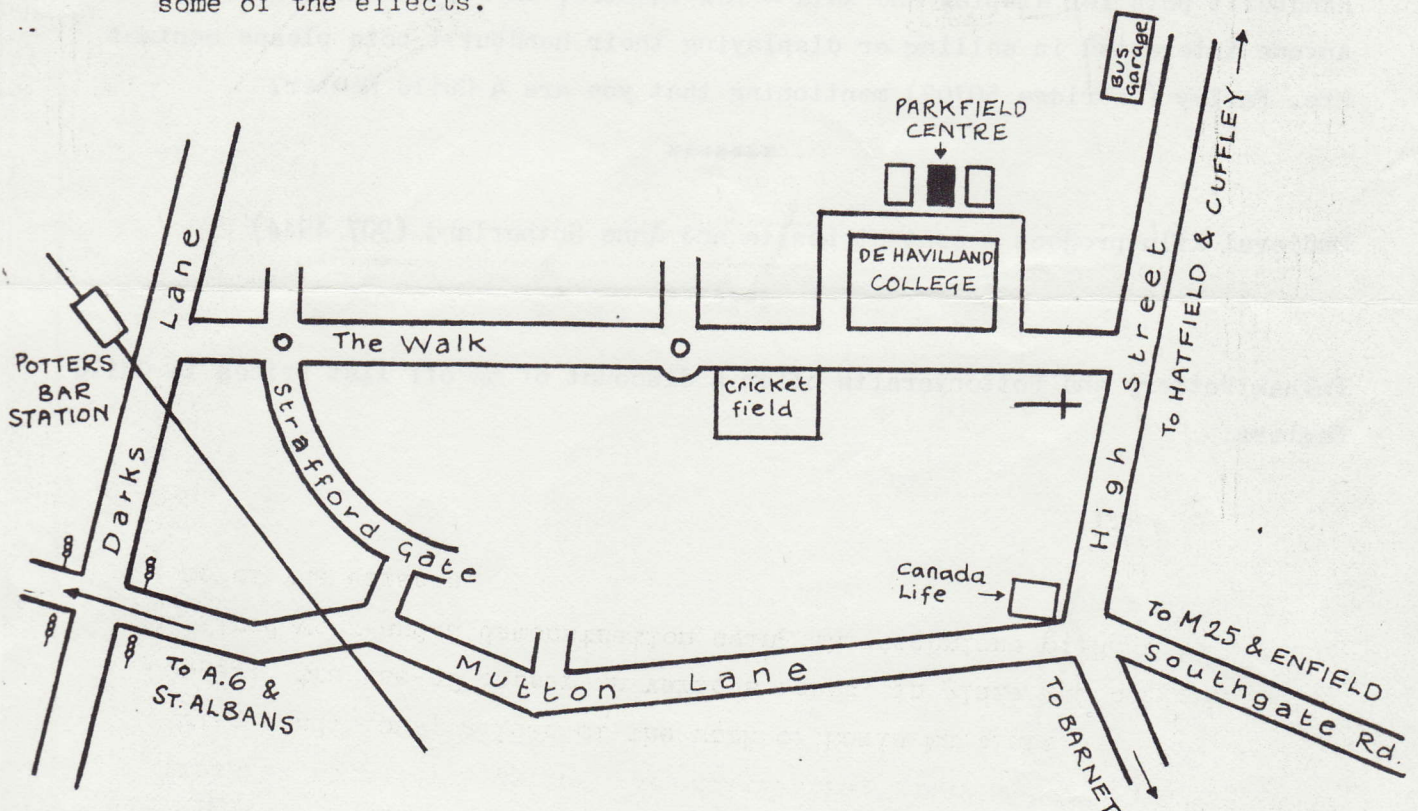

De Havilland College

Potters Bar

Friday 22nd March, 1985 at 8 pm.

Burnished pots; The use of red earthenware, burnished through different firing conditions, slides of the work of Maria Martinez.

Copper; the use of copper in various forms, in glaze and body, examples of fired work and a demonstration using the technique of Raku to achieve some of the effects.

Open Houses

Saturday 16th March, 1985 from 2 - 6pm. Digby and Dorothy Stott, Broomfields, 36 Box Lane, Boxmoor, Hemel Hempstead, Herts. (Hemel Hempstead 50540)

Friday 12th April, 1985 6pm. onwards. Marigold Austin, 17 Talbot Street, Hertford (Hertford 550395) Marigold is Vice Chairman of the Guild and is a full time potter with her own studio. She produces a range of thrown stoneware decorated with painted slip and fired in an electric kiln. Visitors are welcome to join in a general discussion on the forms of decoration applied to her collection of early studio potters' work.

Are you firing a kiln? Starting a new workshop, having any event that may be of interest to the Guild members? If so, maybe you would like to share this with others and hold a Potter's Open House at the same time.

The Potter's Open House is a social occasion to enable Guild members to meet at each others houses for coffee and biscuits.

Anyone interested in holding an Open House, with or without an event, please contact Jerry Seaborn (Ruislip 39468) or any other committee member at Guild Meetings.

Pot and Plant Sale Cow Byre 15th June, 1985.

Anyone interested or requiring further information please contact Mrs. Farley, (Uxbridge 50702)

Handbuilt pots for display and sale - Bex Theatre, Hayes, 28th April - 5th May, 1985

Anyone interested in selling or displaying their handbuilt pots please contact Mrs. Farley (Uxbridge 50702) mentioning that you are a Guild Member.

Medieval kiln project - contact Leslie and Anne Sutherland (907 4944)

Fulham Pottery and Pottery crafts offer a discount of 5% off list prices to Guild Members.