

DACORUM AND CHILTERN POTTERS GUILD

March, April 1985

Practical Evening

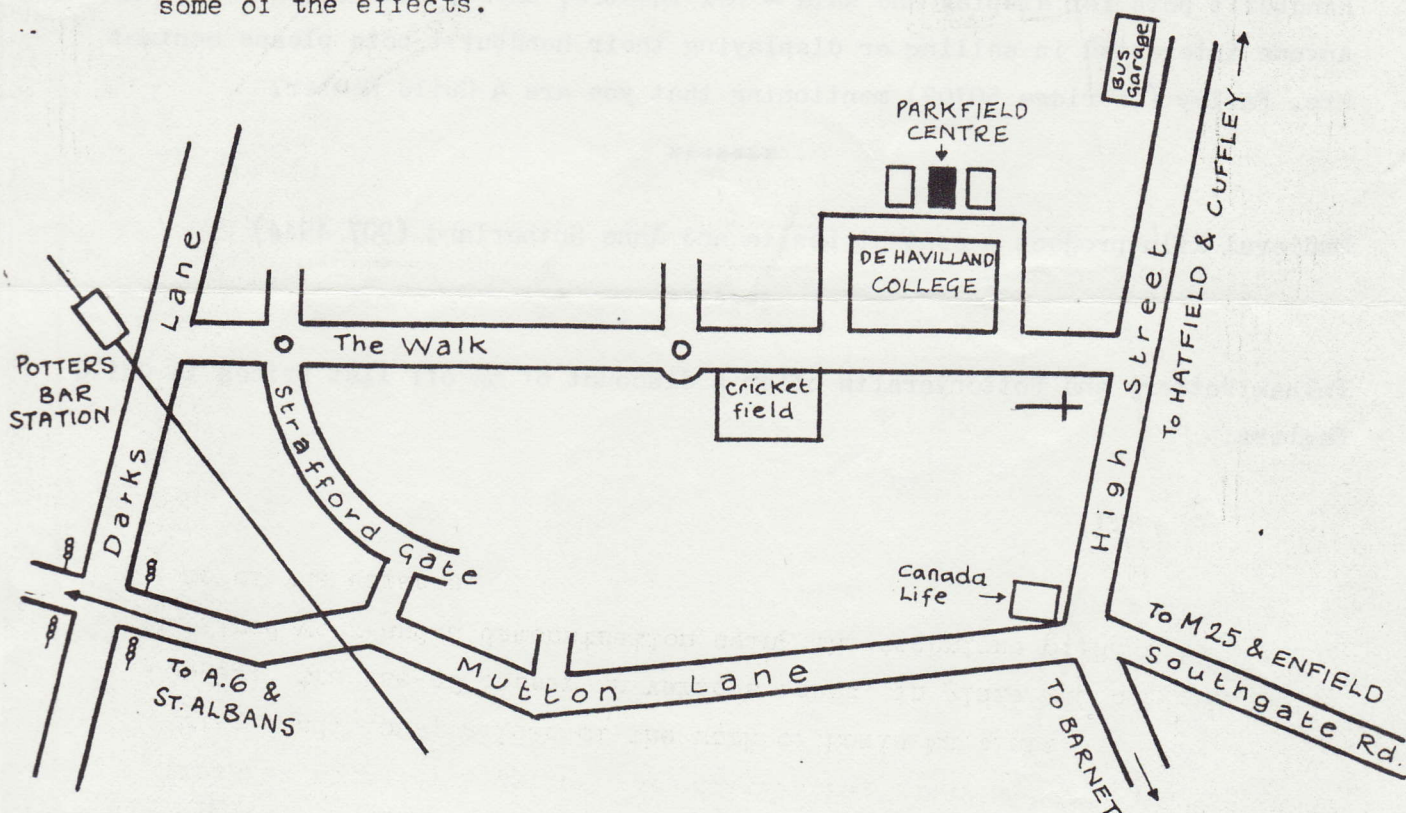

De Havilland College

Potters Bar

Friday 22nd March, 1985 at 8 pm.

Burnished pots; The use of red earthenware, burnished through different firing conditions, slides of the work of Maria Martinez.

Copper; the use of copper in various forms, in glaze and body, examples of fired work and a demonstration using the technique of Raku to achieve some of the effects.

Open Houses

Saturday 16th March, 1985 from 2 - 6pm. Digby and Dorothy Stott, Broomfields, 36 Box Lane, Boxmoor, Hemel Hempstead, Herts. (Hemel Hempstead 50540)

Friday 12th April, 1985 6pm. onwards. Marigold Austin, 17 Talbot Street, Hertford (Hertford 550395) Marigold is Vice Chairman of the Guild and is a full time potter with her own studio. She produces a range of thrown stoneware decorated with painted slip and fired in an electric kiln. Visitors are welcome to join in a general discussion on the forms of decoration applied to her collection of early studio potters' work.

